

Peterhouse Data Protection Statement – Senior Members

How we use your personal information

This statement explains how Peterhouse (“we” and “our”) handles and uses information we collect about our senior members (“you” and “your”). In broad terms, we use your data to manage your employment and/or membership with the College, including your role and the performance of it, how we support you as an employer, and how you are paid, as well as other statutory requirements.

The controller for your personal information is Peterhouse, Trumpington Street, Cambridge, CB2 1RD. The Data Protection Officer for the College is the Intercollegiate Services Limited [64 Bridge Street; 01223 768745; college.dpo@ois.cam.ac.uk]: OIS Ltd. should be contacted if you have any concerns about how the College is managing your personal information, or if you require advice on how to exercise your rights as outlined in this statement. The person within the College otherwise responsible for data protection at the time of issue, and the person who is responsible for monitoring compliance with relevant legislation in relation to the protection of personal data, is the College Data Protection Lead [dpl@pet.cam.ac.uk].

Unless otherwise stated, the legal basis for processing your personal data is that it is necessary for the performance of the employment contract or membership agreement we hold with you, or for statutory purposes (e.g. processing your monthly salary, tax and pension contributions).

Data marked with an * relate to information provided by you, or created in discussion and agreement with you. Other data and information is generated by the College or, where self-evident, provided by a third party.

We would not routinely monitor social media sites for any personal data relating to you, unless we believed there was a legitimate interest for us to do so (e.g. monitoring compliance with an agreed plan, such as a home working agreement) and only if we inform you we might do this in advance. Consequently, we do not routinely screen your social media profiles but, if aspects of these are brought to our attention and give rise to concerns about your conduct, we will need to consider them. Our social media guidelines are available at: Social Media Guidelines.

For certain posts, we may use the Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS) and Disclosure Scotland to help assess your suitability for certain positions of trust. If this is the case, we will make this clear to you in separate correspondence. Certificate and status check information is only used for this specific purpose, and we comply fully with the DBS code of Practice regarding the correct use, handling, storage, retention and destruction of certificates and certificate information. We recognise that it is a criminal offence to pass this information on to anyone who is not entitled to receive it.

We also operate CCTV in various locations around the College, including in the Library, the gym and at the Boathouse, which will capture footage for security and health and safety purposes. Our CCTV policy can be viewed at CCTV policy.

Who we share your data with

For senior members we would normally publish on our website your name, photograph (if you have provided one), your e-mail and College contact phone number and basic biographical information relating to your College and University posts.

We share your personal information where necessary and appropriate across the collegiate University. The University and its partners (including all of the Colleges) have a data sharing protocol to govern the sharing of staff and members of the College. This is necessary because they are distinct legal entities. The parties may share any of the above categories of personal information, and the agreement can be viewed in full at <https://www.ois.cam.ac.uk/policies-and-protocols/data-sharing-protocols>. Any transmission of information between partners is managed through agreed processes that comply with UK data protection legislation.

We share relevant personal data with relevant government agencies (e.g. HMRC) and your pension provider. Information is not shared with other third parties without your written consent, other than your name, role and employment contact details which are made publically available. Generally, personal data is not shared outside of the European Economic Area.

In the case where the College needs to obtain legal advice in order to carry out its normal business in relation to an issue involving a senior member, the College may share relevant personal data with its lawyers, but will only do so to the extent that it considers necessary in the circumstances.

During the process of preparing for and dealing with proceedings before a court of law or employment tribunal, the College will disclose relevant personal data with the body conducting those proceedings.

We hold all information for the duration of your employment or membership of the College and for six years after the end of your employment or cessation of your membership. After that time, we retain a subset of personal data in a secure archive:

- I* personal details, including name, date of birth, NI number and your preferred personal contact details (if we still have these);
- II your job title(s) or College affiliation(s) and the corresponding dates of employment/membership;
- III your previous salaries and other earnings, pensions and the amounts you have paid in statutory taxes;
- IV your reasons for leaving and any related correspondence;
- V any references we have written subsequent to your employment with us.

Those marked with an * relate to information provided by you, or created in discussion and agreement with you.

We reserve the right to retain other personal data in a secure archive where it becomes apparent that there is a need to do so – for example, in the event of a major health or personal injury incident.

Your rights

You have the right: to ask us for access to, rectification or erasure of your data; to restrict processing (pending correction or deletion); and to ask for the transfer of your data electronically to a third party (data portability). Some of these rights are not automatic, and we reserve the right to discuss with you why we might not comply with a request from you to exercise them.

Failure to provide the information reasonably requested of you may result in disciplinary action taken by the College, which could ultimately lead to your dismissal from employment.

If you have any questions about how your personal information is used, or wish to exercise any of your rights, please contact the College Data Protection Lead, dpl@pet.cam.ac.uk, in the first instance. If you are not happy with the response from us, you may contact the statutory Data Protection Officer, college.dpo@ois.cam.ac.uk.

You retain the right at all times to lodge a complaint about our management of your personal data with the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
