THE LADY ALEXANDRA DACRE MUSIC PRIZE 2021/22

This prize, of £150, will be awarded to an Undergraduate of Peterhouse "for excellence in performance, composition or academic studies" in Music. Candidates may be considered on the basis of one of these criteria or a combination of them. The award of the Prize for the academical year 2021/22 will be decided in the Lent Term.

It is intended that for those who wish to be considered on the basis of performance, auditions will be held in the Lubbock Room in late February / early March. Candidates will be asked to perform music which they have prepared for up to twenty minutes. The main part of the recital should consist of one substantial work, or a movement of a work. Instrumentalists who require a piano accompaniment will be responsible for securing the services of an accompanist. Those who wish to enter for the prize by performance should submit their names, together with a proposed programme (with approximate times) to Mrs Celia Sievewright in the Tutorial Office on celia.sievewright@pet.cam.ac.uk by Friday 14th January 2022.

Those who wish to be considered on the basis of composition or academic studies should inform Mrs Sievewright of their wish to do so by Friday 14th January 2022 and they should submit their written work by Friday 4th February 2022.

The date of the auditions will be announced later.
